

EVBO Conference Sponsorships 2024

The EVBO accepts applications from the Organizing Committees of conferences with a focus on vascular/cardiovascular science to be held in 2024.

The selected conferences will receive:

- Up to 2.000€ financial support
- Advertisement of the sponsored conference on all EVBO platforms (Website, Twitter, Facebook, EVBO Mailing list)

Applications must be sent as one pdf file (maximum 3 pages) to secretary@evbo.org and include the following information:

- Details and theme of the conference
- Expected number and geographical distribution of attendees
- International profile
- Preliminary programme (if available)
- Proposed method to recognize or highlight EVBO in the programme or at the conference

Evaluation criteria are:

- Quality of conference (subjects covered, but also international experts among invited speakers).
- Preference will be given to international conference, albeit national conference of outstanding quality will continue to be funded.
- Varied fields within vascular biology will be selected to reach as many audiences as possible.
- Sufficient speaker spots for young investigators.
- Possibility for all EVBO members to attend.
- Approach for recognition of EVBO sponsorship at the event.

Applications will be accepted starting September 19, 2023. Application deadline is November 27, 2023.
